NASCAR STREET STOCK RACE REPORT, SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1989

RAYBURN & BECKERS ADD TO STREET STOCK TRIUMPHS

Russ Beckers and Craig Rayburn won their fourth and fifth feature races Saturday night at Saugus Speedway. Inverting the top four street stock qualifiers put Tim Staubs and Beckers on the front row with Ken Maler and Craig Rayburn in the second. Beckers jumped past Staubs on the start and moved to the lead. The only yellow flag came out on lap two as Jim Marlewski spun in turn two and was hit by John Kirby and then tagged by two other cars. The race resumed with Beckers still leading over Rayburn, Staubs and Rick Crow who had come from eighth starting spot to run fourth in only two laps. When the field went back to green, Crow continued his charge to the front and on lap four took over third from Staubs and got by Rayburn for second on lap nine. Crow closed up to the rear of Beckers as the second half of the race became a one on one duel between Beckers and Crow. Despite Crow having the obviously quicker car, Beckers successfully held off every challenge to take home the win. Rayburn edged out Maler for third while Staubs ended up fifth.

Three cars were inverted for the street stock figure 8 main so Rayburn started on the pole with Beckers once again on the outside. Starting third was Gerrit Cromsigt in the car he owns but which is normally driven by Crow. Cromsigt made an excellent start from third position and grabbed the lead through the first series of turns and leading until he pitted while under a red flag for a stalled car on lap five. Rayburn maintained his lead and went on to win by several carlengths ahead of Beckers. Steve Nickolai was third, Dale White Jr. fourth and Eric Foster fifth.
